

CAPITALIZATION:

1. was it demosthenes, the greek orator, who verbally scolded king philip ii of macedonia?

PUNCTUATION:

Remember: Use an em dash to show unfinished phrases or sentences.

Ex.— Shhhh! Be quiet for—

2. He heard only the following The ship Old Ironsides was
-

CLAUSES:

Restrictive (essential) clauses are necessary to the meaning of a sentence.

Commas are not used. Ex.— The man who is holding a dog is a veterinarian.

Nonrestrictive (nonessential) clauses provide additional, unnecessary information. Use commas with nonessential (nonrestrictive) clauses.

Ex.— His friend, who recently visited Hawaii, is having a garage sale today.

Write a sentence containing a restrictive clause.

3. _____

PARTS OF SPEECH: VERBS

The subjunctive is a verb mood that indicates possibility or doubt. With a singular noun and the pronouns I, he, or she, use were, not was.

Ex.— If I were a faster runner, I would enter the race.

Circle the correct verb.

4. If she (was, were) more attentive to detail, she would do a better job.

SENTENCE COMBINING:

5. Ts'sai Lun was from China.
He is given credit for inventing paper.
This was in 105 A.D.
The Egyptians had used papyrus as paper many centuries before 105 A.D.
-
-