SPELLING:

When do you use er and or endings? If you aren't certain, use a dictionary. However, there is a rule that works frequently.

If tion or ion can be added to a root word, that word usually adds or as the suffix.

Examples: deliberate deliberation deliberator educate education educator

word tion form ir form

4. A. create _____ _____
B. designate _____ _____

SENTENCE COMBINING:

5. Kama gets headaches occasionally.
She then drinks herbal tea and takes a nap.
