DAY 74

CAPITALIZATION:

4	. 4002	.111.	1 120		11.1		"		11			1. 1
1	ın 1877	william	hazlitt wro	te in tr	ne monthii	/ magazine,	"no volina	r man h		ne chall	ever (വല "
	111 1021	, williall	TIUZIILL WILL			, iiiuquziiio,	IIO YOUIIC	a illiali bi		iio oiiaii	- C V C I V	aic.

PUNCTUATION:

Use underlining or quotation marks.

- 2. a) Gloom (short story)
 - b) Shiloh (movie))
 - c) Leave It to Beaver (television show)
- d) Trails (work of art)
- e) Stadium Press (newspaper)
- f) Sun Living (article)

VOCABULARY:

Words have come into our language from other languages.

Chinese or Japanese—bonsai, tycoon

Norse—skill

Dutch/Afrikaans—cookie, yacht

Spanish—chocolate, chili

Select one of the above languages and write an additional word that has become part of English.

3.	Language:	 Word:

SENTENCE COMBINING:

4.	The eruption of Krakatoa created a tsunami.
	A tsunami is a tidal wave. The wave was 120 feet high. It traveled at 300 miles per hour. It hit the coast of Java. This occurred in 1883.

BEYOND EASY GRAMMAR: SYNTAX

A complex sentence is formed by joining dissimilar clauses.

- a) Independent Clause + Dependent Clause
 - Ex. Heat the oven to 350 degrees before you bake brownies.

independent clause

dependent clause

- b) Dependent Clause + Independent Clause
 - Ex. Before you bake brownies, heat the oven to 350 degrees.

dependent clause

independent clause

- c) Part of an Independent Clause + Dependent Clause + Part of an Independent Clause
 - Ex.— The girl who delivers our mail knows my aunt.

dependent clause