

CAPITALIZATION:

1. the first memorial day occurred when people placed flowers on the graves of those who fought in the civil war in arlington national cemetery on may 30, 1868.

PUNCTUATION:

Use a (suspending) hyphen after an adjective to indicate a relationship with the last term.

Ex.— new- and used-clothing store

2. Clearly and concisely the man discussed up and down market swings to the confused worried investors
-

PARTS OF SPEECH: ADVERBS

Circle the correct adverb.

3. a. They rowed (faster, fastest) during the last half of the race.
- b. I did the fourth exercise (more awkwardly, most awkwardly).
- c. Kyle visits (more often, oftener) than Reese.

CLAUSES:

Restrictive (essential) clauses are needed to understand a sentence. Do not use commas.

Use who or whom with living things.

Wrong: The woman that was in Iraq is a soldier.

Correct: The woman who was in Iraq is a soldier.

Use that or which with a nonliving item or a group.

Wrong: The team who won was undefeated.

Correct: The team that won was undefeated.

Nonrestrictive (nonessential) clauses aren't necessary. Use a comma or commas.

Place a comma or commas in any sentence that contains a nonrestrictive clause.

4. a. Someone who is frugal rarely splurges.
- b. We bought brushes that have natural bristles.
- c. My aunt who is rather talkative collects old glass.

SENTENCE COMBINING:

5. Tallow candles were first used in England.

These were made of vegetable or animal fat.

These were replaced with beeswax candles in the 1600's.

Beeswax candles were much more expensive.
